I’m aware of that fact movies like documentary don’t have much audience in India. They enjoy unwanted exposure and unrealistic fight sequences. But, I’m trying my way and using videos to address issues with detailed researched on it and exhibit at global platforms. I don’t get much financial support from any chamber or industry the only thing which motivates me is the smile on the face. And strong support from my parents.

Iraqi Odyssey

Director: Sameer | Country: UAE

Synopsis:
While there are no precise statistics, it is estimated that four to five million Iraqis live outside Iraq today. Award-winning filmmaker Samir was born in Baghdad and has lived in Switzerland since he was a child, while the members of his extended family are scattered all over the world - Abu Dhabi, Auckland, Sydney, Los Angeles, Buffalo, London, Paris, Zurich, and Moscow - with only a handful remaining in Iraq. Recounting his family's stories of departures and uprootings, in Iraqi Odyssey Samir also chronicles how Iraqis' dreams of building a modern and just society after their nation achieved independence in the 1950s were brutally dashed over the course of half a century. Loosely organized in three acts, the film begins with Samir's grandfather and his role in the struggle against British colonialism.
